

THE MORNING AFTER

The official newsletter that recaps meetings "the morning after"

May 19, 2016

Vol. 1, Iss. 1

Message from the President

I have had this idea for a little while about creating some type of newsletter for the club. We do a lot that not only do people not know about, but that we tend to miss out on if we are unable to attend meetings. As such, rather than read boring minutes, I decided to initiate this newsletter.

This will be sent out (hopefully with regularity) the morning after every meeting. It will encapsulate what was discussed at the meeting, upcoming events, and some other little fun factoids.

If you have suggestions about how this could be or look better, information that should be included, or would like to share something for the good of the club, please let me know! I can only do the good things you want if you tell them to me!

So, read on! Have fun, and enjoy The Morning After!

Serving charity,
Scott Ackerman, President of Bordentown Kiwanis Club

P.S.—I hope that you find humor with the name and not take it offensively. I happen to enjoy puns and double entendre.

QuickChek 34th Annual Festival of Ballooning

This year, for the first time, we are in charge of the beer tents that exist during the QuickChek Ballooning festival. Staffing two tents for the three day festival can be daunting, but its rewards are heavy. What do we get out of participating with this event:

- ◇ Money from every beer sold goes to our club budget
- ◇ Tip money from patrons goes to our club budget and projects
- ◇ Having fun with your fellow Kiwanians
- ◇ Getting free tickets to the Festival!

The more people that we have at the event, the shorter we can try to make the shifts and the more you can enjoy the event. And as for the concert schedule?

Friday 7/29 - Third Eye Blind

Saturday 7/30 (Afternoon) - The Girl & The Dreamcatcher

Saturday 7/30 (Evening) - KC & The Sunshine Band

Sunday 7/31 - John Kay & Steppenwolf with special guest Foghat

So, please not only think about attending, but how this fundraiser is a major project for this club! Sign ups can be done online (please talk to Scott, George, or Jim about how to sign up).
